

Index

INTRODUCTION

Freemasonry in Italy	7
Paolo Gambi

FREEMASONRY: A NEW SPRING

INTERVIEW WITH GRAND MASTER GUSTAVO RAFFI

A new Style	11
What is Freemasonry	11
A transparent Institution	16
The role of Freemasonry	19
The Esoteric Journey	20
Esoterism and ethics	23
Darkness and light	25
The two approaches: pedagogy and dialogue	27
Laicism	32
About ethics	35
The pedagogy of disengagement: method and ethics	37
On relativism	41
A clarification: Freemasonry or Christianity	43
Freemasonry and the Catholic Church	47

About the Great Architect of the Universe	49
Does Freemasonry think of God? Can it? And how?	50
God today	52
Who do Masons believe God to be	54
Science and faith	55
Final considerations on the Great Architect of the Universe	57
 The topical nature of tradition	 59
Two hundred years at the service of mankind	59
An updated Tradition	63
The importance of Brotherhood	65
The right to be a Freemason	69
The right to happiness	70
Against pleasure	72
Tangible happiness	74
Eastwards, Southwards	75
The purpose of happiness	78
Globalisation and the market	82
The city of man	85
The pedagogy of freedom	90
Freemasons and public institutions	91
The pedagogical commitment	92
New Humanism	95
A secular public school	98
In praise of schools	100
A Freemasonry for Italy	103
 A few final questions	 107